DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

Remembrance Exhibition: free entry, Sunday 8th November in Harlington Parish Hall 11.30am -4pm. Medals expert, Harlington war history, old photos, various stalls and model railway. Refreshments, home made cakes and the popular Harlington Pasties.

High Five for Ollie: Every Christmas, in memory of Ollie, his mum collects pyjamas for children battling cancer. As a church we have supported this for the past few years, and we again ask if you could support this very worthy cause by donating a set or two of children's pyjamas. Please gift wrap the pyjamas and label with gender and age. Please bring the pyjamas to church from now up until mid-November. Thank you.

Westoning Church Christmas Craft Fayre takes place on Saturday 14th November 10am – 3pm at Westoning Village Hall.

MEN'S BREAKFAST 9.00 am Saturday 21 November at The Chequers Westoning. £9 per head for excellent breakfast. Please confirm attendance to phsteer@outlook.com by Thursday 19 November.

Concert at St Mary's Harlington, featuring the amazing Barton Community Choir and Dunstable Town Band. Saturday 28th November at 7pm. Suggested minimum donation on the door £5; raffle; bring your own drink. Tea and coffee available.
Art Attack: free session on Saturday 28th Nov 10- 12noon in St Mary's Harlington church. Come and get crafty for Christmas, make decorations, and create paintings to decorate the church. Washable paints and aprons available, but it's best not to wear your best clothes! Biscuits and drinks provided. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

The funeral of Mary Hibbert, a former member of the congregation at both Harlington and Westoning churches, takes place on Tuesday 10th November at 10am at St Mary's Harlington.
To assist with catering, please can you let the family know if you wish to attend or, Westoning folk, please speak to Linda or Peter.
